

FROM FOREIGN LANDS.

Don Carlos, the Bourbon, as a Disturbing Element.

Further Fighting in Afghanistan.

FRANCE.
DON CARLOS WORRIES THEM.
National Associated Press to the Star.

LONDON, Oct. 30.—Advices from Paris state that the Commandant in charge of the Military School at Saumur has been ordered to report himself under arrest for eight days, for the offense of neglecting to warn his officers against attending one of the receptions of Don Carlos, the Bourbon pretender to the crown of Spain. The lively apprehensions felt in the French Government circles of a possibility of getting mixed up in some way with Spain through the excessive friendliness of Don Carlos are reported to have taken the form of a plan to eject him from the country, unless he leaves voluntarily in pursuance of the hints already given.

AFGHAN.
LONDON, Oct. 30.—A dispatch from Simla states that the troubles in Afghanistan have broken out afresh, and that the chances are good for a general uprising all over the country throughout the winter, whose coming is already announced by heavy snow falls upon the mountains. The British force detached from the garrison at Khelatizai is reported to have attacked and defeated a body of Afghans with a freebooting force under command of Sahibzai.

The battle occurred near Shahjui, a point in the vicinity of Khelat, and fifty Afghans are reported killed, and the British loss was twenty-seven killed and wounded, including Capt. in Sartorius, whose injuries are dangerous.

Both infantry and cavalry were engaged. The Afghans made a desperate struggle and will, it is expected, soon make a strong and combined attempt to take Khelat, an important post on the route from Candahar to Kabul.

The attempts of the Military Secretariat of India, by means of the new rules concerning correspondence, to suppress all unfavorable criticism on the conduct of the Afghan campaigns, is held to prove the seriousness with which the Home and Vice Regal Governments view the situation.

BLUE AND GRAY.
Government Band Plays at the Unveiling of a Confederate Monument.

National Associated Press to the Star.
MACON, Ga., Oct. 30.—The unveiling of the Confederate monument took place to-day in the presence of 25,000 people. The day was lovely and much enthusiasm prevailed. The military was represented by two regiments of infantry and two battalions of artillery, and altogether the display was the most imposing since the war. Colonel Colquett, introducing the speaker, said there was nothing sectional in the ceremonies being enacted, but simply a tribute to those who died in what they believed to be a sacred cause. [Great applause.]

The speech to Colonel Hardeman was one calculated to soften all animosities. He expressed the belief that the United States possessed but one people and one Constitution, by which we would all stand. He paid a glowing tribute to the valor of the Northern troops, comparing them in bravery to the legions of Caesar. No sectional issues were discussed or referred to, and the best feeling prevailed throughout. The Fifteenth U. S. Infantry Band was present, and assisted in the ceremonies. The city was brilliantly illuminated at night.

They say that they have called the attention of the Senators and Representatives from this State to the subject, and that they have requested each of them to use the utmost toward the passage of some law by Congress which will provide for an appropriation of funds to defray the expenses of returning such parties.

AWFUL ANN ARBOR.
Serious Skirmish With University Students.
The Alarm Bells Rang and Military Called Out.

SPECIAL TO THE STAR.
DETROIT, Mich., Oct. 30.—At Ann Arbor Tuesday night a number of University students were arrested for creating a disturbance and they lustily squealed. Last night several hundred students, resolved upon a retaliation for this indignity, went down town determined to clean out the citizens. They pounced upon the officers who made an attempt to keep them quiet, and the Mayor had the alarm bells rung, calling out the populace.

The citizens rushed to the scene by hundreds, armed with clubs, and after a brief but spirited engagement, they overpowered the unruly youths. Ten or twelve of their ringleaders were arrested and escorted to jail, while the others hunted their dormitories. The military was then called out, but no further disturbance occurred during the night.

CHILLICOTHE OFFICIALS.
Pay a Visit to Our City on a Tour of Inspection.

The Mayor, City Clerk and Council of our neighboring city Chillicothe, paid us a visit this morning for the purpose of inspecting some of our public institutions, and especially our steam fire engines.

They called on the Ahrens Manufacturing Company, on Webster street, and, through the courtesy of Mr. Ahrens, had the exquisite pleasure of witnessing a practical test of the finest engine ever built by steam in this country.

Mr. Ahrens got up steam in an incredible short time, and ran a line of hose to S. Canors street from the works, which are situated near Main street.

A four-inch stream was thrown, both upward and in a horizontal direction, reaching a distance of 275 feet and 200 feet. The engine itself is a perfect model of beauty, and all the working parts were fully tested, but the full capacity of the engine was not tried. This engine was built for the No. Tens of the New Orleans Fire Department, and will be shipped to-morrow, being the first of an order of five for that city.

The completion of this order will make eight in the past year. Work is very brisk in this establishment, requiring them to run at night to keep up with the orders that are fast coming in.

The following are the names of the gentlemen from Chillicothe: David Smart, Mayor; Alex. E. Wenis, City Clerk; Jacob Warner, Chief of Fire Department. City Council—George Stiles, Henry Kline, Geo. W. Clough, John C. Entrikin, Samuel Epstein, Fred. C. Washburn.

Mrs. Teresina Singer.
There is a great deal of curiosity among our musical public to hear Miss Teresina Singer, who has created quite a furore and who appears with the Strakosch Opera Company at the Grand next week. The press pronounces her the greatest dramatic prima donna that has visited this country for several years. We quote the following from the Philadelphia Ledger about her performance of "Aida":

"The performance of 'Aida' by the Strakosch Troupe at the Academy last evening was artistically a success. It is safe to say that there has never been a more evenly balanced, smooth and generally satisfactory performance of this grand opera. Miss Teresina Singer, who sustained the role of 'Aida,' is a Hungarian by birth, a thoroughly trained and conscientious artist, who has sung the character songs of the times in Europe, and who is an unusually good actress."

On her first appearance last evening she was manifestly nervous and did not do herself justice; as the opera proceeded, however, she warmed up to her work, and before the close of the first act she had fully conquered the sympathies of the audience, receiving an enthusiastic encore for her fine rendering of the long scene and aria commencing "Bilturna Vincitor," and closing with the charming prayer "Nun mihi." From this point on to the close of the curtain she was almost continually applauded, her recalls were numerous, and she received many floral gifts. She has a voice of wonderful compass and great power, especially in the lower tones, which are as full and sonorous as a pure contralto.

Mlle. de Belocera as "Amneris" did the best work she has yet accomplished during the season, and after her long and trying scene in the third act she received a deserved recall and several bouquets and baskets of flowers. Signor Petrovich, a new tenor, pes-mak "Radames," and by his fine presence and fresh, clear voice, made a success. Signor Sarti, another debutant, was the "Amnorski." He has a full, powerful baritone voice, which he used to good effect in the Ethiopian King. Signor Cadenary as "Ramsides" did the good opinion already formed of him.

Charges Against Clerk Ambrose.
Last Wednesday the Enquirer Company brought suit against Captain Tom Ambrose, Clerk of the U. S. Court, to recover damages for overcharges in the case of John Y. Gibson against the paper, and yesterday J. M. Mathews, who was recently dismissed from Ambrose's office, for the offense of giving information respecting the conduct of the office, swore to an affidavit before Commissioner Proboscio, stating that $11 overcharges had been made in the case referred to. The case is now in the hands of the District Attorney, and if he approves of the same, Captain Ambrose will be arrested and brought either before Commissioner Proboscio and the Grand Jury which is now in session.

It is also claimed by the parties who are bringing the suit and by others who have examined the Journal at the office that overcharges were made in many of the bankruptcies and other cases, which must have amounted to a large sum during the five years that Mr. Ambrose has held the position. It is further stated that the name of Daniel Webster appeared on the Journal for three years as Court Bailiff, while in fact he only served one year. The question is who drew the pay.
